

Shahrukh Report Review

Writing Style

There exists a great continuity in the writing style such that it makes it very easy to understand the functioning of the neural network as a breast cancer classifier.

Experimental Design

Careful examination of the devised neural network under various circumstances has resulted in a better and evolved understanding. The experiments were closely related to each other to avoid the effects of any kind of ambiguity.

Results

The experiments have resulted in a detailed knowledge about the behavioral pattern of the neural network and these experiments are easily reproducible. The experiments also show a high rate of accuracy.
